The Answers About Compulsory

號七十月七英港香

CONSCRIPTION

EVERYBODY IS anxious to know how they will be called up under Hongkong's conscription scheme—how they will be trained—what they will have to do-what will happen afterwardsand all the other details.

The plain story of this new enterprise, which is unique in Colonial peace-time history—as one high official described it to the "Telegraph": "Hongkong leads and the others may follow"—is given below in simple language.

Some answers are necessarily vague, because all the details have not yet been worked out for publication. Here are the questions and their answers:

Drought Broken

Heavy Downpour Soaks Colony

THREE INCHES of rain descended on Hongkong between midnight and 9 o'clock this morning, according to Royal Observatory figures.

This is the heaviest rainfall since June 30, and incidentally brought to a close a drought which had lasted for a fortnight.

The theaviest-downpour-was-between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning, when 30 of an inch was recorded. Another 60 points fell between five and six and a further 71 points fell A.R.P., Fire Fighting, etc. between seven and eight.

The first eight hours to-day produced 2.73 inches of rain, and as it rained steadily between 8 o'clock and nine o'clock, it is estimated that more than three inches of rain had fallen up to that time.

Temperature Down

A drop in temperature yesterday presaged this morning's rain storm. Yesterday the mercury reached a maximum of 90, compared with 94 on minimum yesterday was 81.

As a result of the latest downpour, the Colony's rainfall for the year now exceeds 55 inches, which is about 12 inches above the normal.

ACCORDING to the newspaper "Intransigeant," General Gamelin was to have been placed in supreme command of the British, French and Polish armies in the event of war, but under a new arrangement, General Sir Edmund Ironside will control the British and Polish armies.

During his forthcoming visit to Warsaw, says the paper, General Ironside will confirm arrangements already in hand for the sending of a British aircraft-carrier to Gydnia, which would carry British war planes to be placed at the disposal of the Polish army.

FOLICE INJURED IN JAMAICA.

KINGSTON, Jamaica. A clash between police and the hooligan element in Kingston recently resulted in four policemen being injured with stones and bricks. The police fired over the heads of the crowd to force it to disperse.

The cause of the clash was an attempt made by about 500 men at breaking into the headquarters of the Ex-Servicemen's Union to beat up its members. These members continue to work on Kingston whorves. An attempt was made to set fire to their building. For a couple of days the Govern-ment mobilised special constables to help the ordinary police. Attacks were made on light standards in the City and a number were destroyed.

HOSPITAL BENEFITS ON JULY 1

AUCKLAND, The Government started free hospital services under the Social Security Act on July 1.

The honorary medical staffs will continue unpaid, being unwilling to consider piece-meal remuneration until the major question of the general practitioner service is settled.

The New Zealand Branch of the British Medical Association has found the scheme of medical benefits under the Social Security Act to be totally unacceptable to the medical profession, which is unable to co-operate in its administration. KENYA

AUSTRALIA NATIONAL REGISTER OF INDUSTRY

CANBERRA. As a supplement to the National Register the Minister for Supply, Mr. R. G. Casey, has decided on a compulsory register of the productive capacity and resources of industries of defence significance.

This step has been taken because Australtan factory managements and industrial organisations have shown little disposition to co-operate voluntarily with the Government in preparing a register of the material resources of the nation.

Only about a third of the industries approached by questionnaire some time ago have yet supplied returns. Cost of Defence,-Australia's defence expenditure, which amounted to £1 8s. 6d. a head of population in 1937-38, will be £1 a head heavier during the current financial year as the result of the enlarged pro-gramme. This sum compares with £8 4s. 1d. in the United Kingdom, £1 0s. 4d. in New Zealand, and 18s. 2d. in Canada.

TIENTSIN: PARLEYS BOY IS STRIPPED: JAPAN APOLOGISES

Tokyo reports that a divergence of views on the procedure for the Anglo-Japanese negotiations on Tientsin was revealed during Saturday's first conference between Mr. H. Arita, Japanese Foreign Minister, and Sir Robert L. Craigie, British Ambassador to Tokyo,

Sir Robert is said to have suggested as basis for further negotiations that the neutrality of the Concessions in China must be respected and the status quo be maintained in respect of British rights and Interests. Political circles in Japan believe that the negotiations will be very long and difficult.

The Japan Times hints that the Japanese demands will include surrender of the Tientsin suspects. British collaboration with the Japanese economic policy, especially as regards North China currency, transfer of the silver reserves in the Tientsin Concessions to the Pelping Government, and strict control of propaganda against the Pelping government.

Another meeting between Mr. Arita and Sir Robert will take place to-day.

In Tientsin the British Consul protested against the stripping of a young British boy. Japanese officials denied the interception of the supply of milk and foodstuffs,

The Times' diplomatic correspondent says that the British Government will stick fast to their attitude that the talks in Tokyo must be confined to local issues at Tientsin, adding that "plans are being prepared against any eventuality."

In Tsingtoo the Japanese cancelled the anti-British demonstration planned for yesterday. The British Consulate General is being guarded; by Japanese marines as the result of the bomb outrage on Friday.

Due to anti-British agitation there, a dozen Britons have left Knifeng, capital of Honan.

Japanese Violation Of Agreement

Japanese Government circles take strong exception to the Soviet judicial decision in the case pending between the Japanese North Sakhalien Mining Company and the Saviet Colliers' Union.

According to the Tass agency, the Japanese concern, the Kita Karafuto Kogyo Kabushiki Kaisha (North Sakhalien Mining Company), which owns the coal concession in North Sakhalien since 1937, has reduced its activity and systematically aggravated the conditions of workers.

The Tass agency alleged that in violation of the Concession Agreement, the administration of the concession began arbitrary and unlawful reduction of food ration and wages for the workers.

Recover Well To Win Game

Yesterday's nightcap was as interesting a game as we've witnessed at Caroline Hill. Trailing for five frames, U. S. S. Mindanao came from behind a large deficit to nose out Nam Hwa 9-8.

South China counted first in the Initial inning and Mindanao retaliated with one also. Then Nam Hwa jumped shead in the third with an-other marker and ralled with a grand merry-go-round in the fifth with a tally of five runs on four blows, four errors.

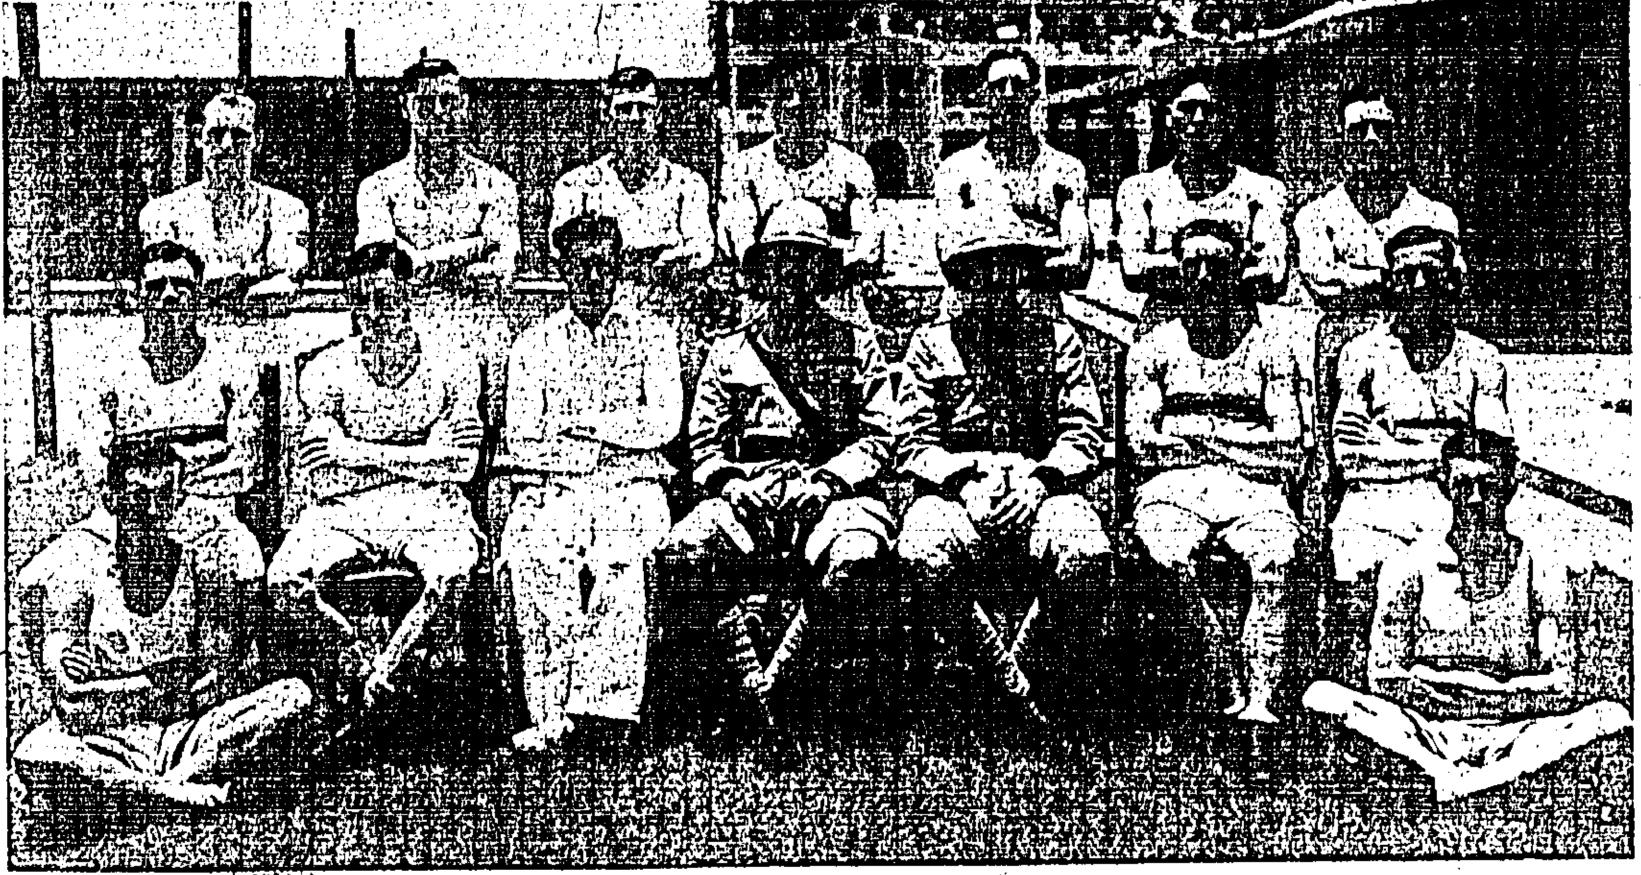

But although the gobs only scored once in that inning, a dashing rally in the next knotted the score to start the seventh with a 7-7 tie. Undaunted, Nam Hwa scored one more run on catcher Paintpot Thomas' wild throw to second, but Mindanao brought their stock up one ahead of them when Terrible Terry doubled to rightfield. There was some argument about ground rules in this play, and I doubt if, at this late stage of the game, all the umpires knew what it is all about. Probably even the Committee on Ground Rules don't agree on all the many rules that confront the poor unfortunates who play ball in dear old Hongkong.

These ground rules, as far as I can remember, were made so that they would work both ways; that is, both sides would benefit, or would not benefit, by them. Now umpires out there don't know these ground rules, and apparently the loudest voice wins the argument. I sincerely hope that they'll dispense with any sort of ground rules next sepson. Then, we won't have any arguments at, all, I hopel

Do You Live By Competition?

MRS. X. lives where competition is the keynote of life. Left to herself she would move through this world quite contentedly. She might even develop a little personality and show an individual note in her clothes, house furnishing, and her hobbles. But either she cannot think for herself by nature or she has spent such a long time allowing her friends to think for her that she has lost the habit. She is just one of A LL good things go in threes, so a million other modern housewives, hept alive and "up-to-date" by the constant competition with other wo-

FELL FROM CAR

Wife Of Stanley Prison Warder Killed

Flung to the roadway! when the door of a car in which she was riding opened suddenly, Mrs. Doris Hodge, 31, wife of Warder Samual Hodge, of Stanley Prison, suffered severe head injuries and was dead before her arrival at Queen Mary Hospital in the early hours of yesterday morning. DECK BUSES

The accident occurred in Main Street, Shoukiwan, about 3 a.m. Private car No. 3,919, driven by Mr. A. I. Cash, of the Waterworks De-partment, was then rounding the bend near the Tung Lee Chan distillery on its way to Stanley. Mrs. Hodge sat in the nearside front seat.

It is believed that as the car roundbeing built up, was sent last week, but no reply has yet been received. Should the public or officials find objection to these buses during this trial, the Company will retain the old order of single deckers.

Mr. Lam Ming-fan, the Bus Company Secretary, who left on the Conte Rosso on Saturday for England, where he will study the buses and services, said that the Kowloon Residents' Association do not seem. ed the bend, Mrs. Hodge's arm, which

EVERYBODY IS anxious to know how they will be called up under Hongkong's conscription scheme—how they will be trained—what they will have to do—what will happen afterwards and all the other details.

The plain story of this new enterprise, which is unique in Colonial peace-time history—as one high official described it to the "Telegraph": "Hongkong leads and the others may follow"—is given below in simple language.

Some answers are necessarily vague, because all the details have not yet been worked out for publication. Here are the questions and their answers:

Loses A-Gun Bren

THE Army have lost a machine gun.

A number of Bren type machine guns were leaded on to an Army lorry at the Tower recently, and taken to Folkstone to be used in Army managuvres there.

But when the guns were checked over at Folkstone, they were found to be one short.

A special message was immediately circulated to all police stations in London and Kent, reporting the loss.

Special inquiries were made all along the route taken by the lorry, which is known to have passed through Lewisham, Sevenoaks, and Ashford.

FOLICE INJURED IN JAMAICA.

KINGSTON, Jamaica. A clash between police and the hooligan element in Kingston recently resulted in four policemen being injured with stones and bricks. The police fired over the heads of the crowd to force it to disperse.

The cause of the clash was an attempt made by about 500 men at breaking into the headquarters of the Ex-Servicemen's Union to beat up its members. These members continue to work on Kingston wharves. An attempt was made to set fire to their building. For a couple of days the Government mobilised special constables to help the ordinary police. Attacks were made on light standards in the City and a number were destroyed.

NATIONAL REGISTER OF INDUSTRY

CANBERRA. As a supplement to the National Register the Minister for Supply, Mr. R. G. Casey, has decided on a compulsory register of the productive capacity and resources of industries of defence significance,

This step has been taken because Australian factory managements and Industrial organisations have shown little disposition to co-operate voluntarily with the Government in preparing a register of the material resources of the nation.

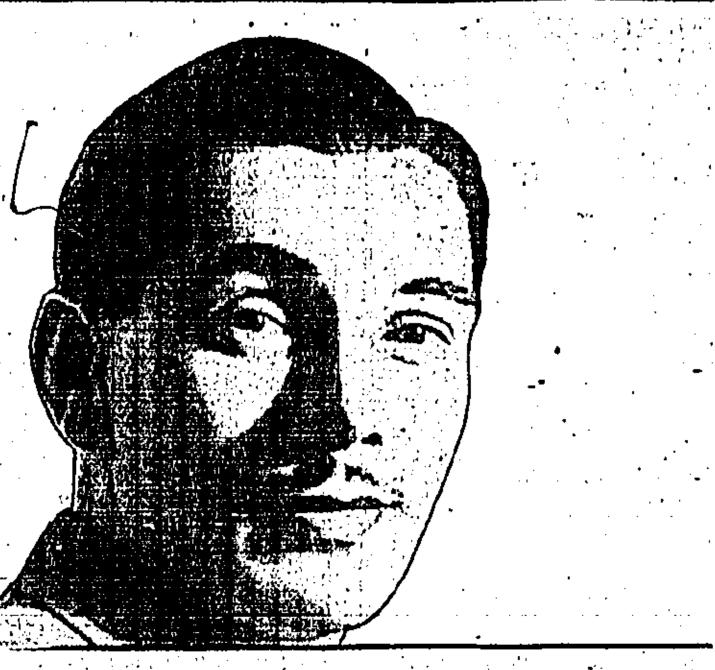

Only about a third of the industries approached by questionnaire some time ago have yet supplied returns. Cost of Defence.-Australia's defence expenditure, which amounted to £1 8s. 6d. a head of population in 1937-38, will be £1 a head heavier during the current financial year as the result of the enlarged programme. This sum compares with £8 4s. 1d. in the United Kingdom, £1 6s. 4d. in New Zealand, and 18s 2d. in Canada. Naval Sloop Launched.-A new sloop for the Royal Australia Navy, H.M.A.S. Parramatts, has just been

Severe Battles Now Raging

CHUNGKING, July 16. CHINESE military reports say that the most severe fighting is raging in southeastern Shansi, where nine columns of Japanese forces have simultaneously launched a vigorous drive. It said that the Chinese troops are successfully intercepting the Japan-ese at a number of points, inflicting heavy losses on the latter at Lisobsien, an important town in eastern Shansi which was captured by the Japanese advancing from the Cehengtal Railroad area but was retaken by the Chinese forces following a daylong battle last week Paichin Advance

It said that another column o Japanese troops are advancing southward along the Paichin highway where they succeeded in capturing Tainhalen, a strategic point on the highway from which the Chinese forces withdrew to the eastward. Since last week, the fighting has also extended to the area of Hslanguan and Wuhslang where heavy street fighting occurred. The report said that the Japanese forces are advancing southward from Pingyno, meeting with stiff resistance in the mountainous regions north of Tsinyuan; however, the Japanese advancing from Antse, immediately cast of Hungtung, are directly threatening Tsinyuan. Meanwhile, the Japanese are sending large bodies of re-inforcements from Tungpu Railroad area while fighting on a still larger scale is expected within the next few days.-United Press.

Conscription In Germany

WE have grown so used to thinking of the German Army as the most powerful force in Western Europe that few people realism how short a time it has been in existence. Five years ago the German Reichswehr was only half the size of the British Regular Army to-day.

By the Peace Treaty it had been limited to 100,000 men, organised in seven infantry and three cavalry divisions. This small force had no military value except for the purpose of maintaining internal order, for it possessed no tanks, no deroplanes, and no artillery of larger calibre than 4-in, guns.

The treaty had also laid down that time, all young Germans had to do a the term of service was to be twelve full year in Labour Service, where, years, so as to prevent the Germans since digging and entrenching form from repeating the process that they a great part of the activities of the had practised after their defeat by modern soldier, they acquired useful Napoleon of passing a constant knowledge. succession of men through the ranks

Senior commanders could be drawn from the veterans of the Great War, and the subaltern grades were filled by intelligent young Nazis, or Most significant of all was the fact by officers promoted from the ranks of the professional Reichswehr.

There was also a great lack of fresher-training the younger of the men who had seen service in the war. The new Army became the favourite child of the Nazi Government. Whatever other branch of the national life had to go short, it was not the Wehrmacht, as it was called thenceforward, and the keenness of the officers and men justified the preferential treatment given them.

London, July 15.
Thirty-four thousand of Britain's 20-year old youths, from towns and villages throughout the British Isles, some smartly dressed from Maylair homes, others in working clothes from the countryside and some in shabby apparel from the Lambeth slums and mining towns, "fell in" in military training camps in various parts of England to-day and received one of the strangest welcomes ever given by Briffsh Army officers, who were under orders that there be 'no rudeness' or bullying, no sarcasm and no music hall conceived sergeantmajors." The recruits, called up as the initial batch of 200,000 for compulsory service, are literally pampered. They have described their quarters as being "more like a hotel than a barracks," with spring beds and hair mattresses. Parents bringing their sons to the camps were particularly impressed by the accommodation.

Queen Mary inspected the mulitiamen at Shornecliffe, while at other camps high army officers reviewed the newcomers and have reported that they were impressed by the "smartness and good physique of the recruits."

The War Minister, Mr. Hore-Belisha, and the Director of Mobilisation, visited the depots at Guildford and Kingston-on-Thames, Viscount Gort, Chief of the Imperial Army Staff, is visiting the camps and barracks next week and afterwards it is probable that the King will carry out a tour of inspection.

TIENTSIN: PARLEYS OPEN: BOY IS STRIPPED: JAPAN APOLOGISES

Tokyo reports that a divergence of views on the procedure for the Anglo-Japanese negotiations on Tientsin was revealed during Saturday's first conference between Mr. H. Arita, Japanese Foreign Minister, and Sir Robert L. Craigie, British Ambassador to Tokyo.

Sir Robert is said to have suggested as basis for further negotlations that the neutrality of the Concessions in China must be respected and the status quo be maintained in respect of British rights and interests. Political circles in Japan believe that the negotiations will be very long and difficult.

The Japan Times hints that the Japanese demands will include surrender of the Tientsin suspects, British collaboration with the Japanese economic policy, especially as regards North China currency, transfer of the silver reserves in the Tientsin Concessions to the Pelping Government, and strict control of propaganda against the Peiping government.

Another meeting between Mr. Arita and Sir Robert will take place to-day, In Tientaln the British Consul protested against the stripping of a young British boy. Japanese officials denied the interception of the supply of milk and foodstuffs. The Times' diplomatic correspondent says that the British Government will stick fast to their attitude that the talks in Tokyo must be confined to local issues at Tientsin, adding that "plans are being prepared against any eventuality." In Tsingtao the Japanese cancelled the anti-British demonstration planned for yesterday. The British Consulate General is being guarded by Japanese marines as the result of the bomb outrage on Friday. Due to anti-British agitation there, a dozen Britons have left Kaifeng, capital of Honan,

Japanese Violation Of Agreement

Japanese Government circles take strong exception to the Soviet judicial decision in the case pending between the Japanese North Sakhallen Mining Company and the Soviet Colliers' Union.

According to the Tass agency, the Japanese concern, the Kita Karafuto Kogyo Kabushiki Kaisha (North Sakhallen Mining Company), which owns the coal concession in North Sakhallen since 1937, has reduced its activity and systematically aggravated the conditions of workers.

UNION BREWERS NOW ASSURED OF BASEBALL FLAG

EASILY TROUNCE CHINESE B.C. IN THE LEAGUE

Almost ideal weather greeted players and fans out at Caroline Hill during the week-end, and, although the much-touted CBC-UB tussle turned out to be a fizzle, the other two tilts were well worth the money.

Another Argument Over

Beer Baron Chet Bennett's Union Brewers are assured of the local flag, and, as far as I know, they will be the first sponsored team to win the total baseball league. Unbeaten so for-and Chet insists that that's what UB also stands for-they deserve the

Recover Well To Win Game

Yesterday's nighteap was as interesting a game as we've witnessed at Caroline Hill. Trailing for five frames, U. S. S. Mindanao came from behind a large deficit to nose out Nam Hwa 9-8.

South China counted first in the initial inning and Mindanao retallated with one also. Then Nam Hwa jumped ahead in the third with another marker and railied with a grand merry-go-round in the fifth with a tally of five runs on four blows, four errors. But although the gobs only scored once in that inning, a dashing rally in the next knotted the score to start the seventh with a 7-7 tie.

Undaunted, Nam Hwa scored one more run on catcher Paintpot Thomas' wild throw to second, but Mindanao brought their stock up one ahead of them when Terrible Terry doubled to rightfield. There was some argument about ground rules in this play, and I doubt if, at this late stage of the game, all the umpires knew what it is all about. Probably even the Committee on Ground Rules don't agree on all the many rules that confront the poor unfortunates who play ball in dear old Hongkong. These ground rules, as far as I can remember, were made so that they would work both ways: that is, both aldes would benefit, or would not benefit, by them. New umpires out there don't know these ground rules, and apparently the loudest voice wins the argument. I sincerely hope that they'll dispense with any sort of ground rules next senson. Then, we won't have any arguments at all, I

Looking quite jolly, here is Count Maurice Lippens, Belgian Minister of State and former Governor of the Belgian Congo, as he arrived in New York. Arrangements were made to entertain him as guest of honour at Belgian Pavillon, New York Fair, on Belgium's Colonial Day.

Flung to the roadway when the DOUBLE DECK BUSES door of a car in which she was riding opened suddenly, Mrs. Dorla Hodge, 31, wife of Warder Samual Hodge, of Stanley Prison, suffered severe head injuries and was dead before her arrival at Queen Mary Hospital in the early hours of yesterday morning.

The accident occurred in Main Street, Shaukiwan, about 3 a.m. Private car No. 3,019, driven by Mr. A. I. Cash, of the Waterworks Department, was then rounding the The Bus Company's proposition of making trial runs with two buses Hodge sat in the nearside front seat.

first, the chasses of which have arrived and are in the process of being built up, was sent last week, but no reply has yet been received. Should the public or officials find objection to these buses during this trial, the Company will retain the old order of single deckers.

Mr. Lam Ming-fan, the Bus Company Secretary, who left on the Conte Rosso on Saturday for England, where he will study the buses and services, said that the Kowloon Residents' Association do not seem averse to these double-deckers and the body was taken to the Film Actress Tells "LIKE a war-time spy story" was the comment of counsel at Marylebone recently, describing how a film actress obtained supplies of drugs concealed in magazines posted to her from America. Margaret Burton (28), of independent means, living in Connaught Square, W.2, pleaded guilty through her counsel, Mr. Bernard Gillis, to being found in the unauthorised possession of a quantity of heroin.

Mr. H. A. K. Morgan, prosecuting, said Miss Burton returned to England from Hollywood about 12 months ago and since then had received regular supplies of heroin from America.

The supplies always came in the same way, like a secret message in a war spy sloty.

Monday,

Innocent looking packets contain-ing American magazines and newspapers were delivered mothly and interly weekly at Miss Burton's address by the postman.

TIENTSIN, July 17. THE THREAT against British interests in Tientsin assumed serious aspect to-day when announced that the Japanese military authorities were contemplating a complete blockade of the Peiho River.

If the blockade is carried into effect, no foreign shipping will be permitted to pass beyond the Taku Bar.

Informed quarters claim that the Japanese military authorities in Tientsin are watching with some concern the developments in the Tokyo negotiations.

It is believed in Japanese circles in Tientsin that the meeting scheduled to be held between Sir Robert Craigie and Mr. Arita this afternoon will definitely lead to a show-down.

The heaviest downpour was between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning when .80 of an inch was recorded.

Another 60 points fell between five and six and a further 71 points fell between seven and eight.

The first eight hours to-day produced 2.73 inches of rain, and as it rained steadily between 8 o'clock and nine o'clock, it is estimated that more than these inches of rain had fallen than three inches of rain had fallen. up to that time,

Temperature Down

A drop in temperature yesterday presaged this morning's rain storm. Yesterday the mercury reached a maximum of 90, compared with 94 on Friday and 93 on Saturday. The minimum yesterday was 81.

As a result of the latest downpour, the Colony's rainfall for the year now exceeds 55 inches, which is about 12 inches above the normal.

Further rain, with a probable improvement later, is forecast.

STEP-SON FOR

WITH the left side of her face unnaturally swollen, her left eye useless and a deep hollow on her left temple, a 60-year-old woman, Leung Hau, was the complainant at the Criminal Sessions this morning in a robbery case in which she had been brutally attacked by her own step-son.

Mr. Justice R. E. Lindsell heard the case.

The defendant was Chan Yuct. He pleaded guilty to a charge of robbery with violence. The sum of money stolen was $15.

Lonscription Germany

WE have grown so used to thinking of the German Army as the most powerful force in Western Europe that few people realish how short a time it has been in existence. Five years ago the German Reichswehr was only half the size of the British Regular Army to-day. By the Peace Treaty it had been limited to 100,000 men, organised in seven infantry and three cavalry divisions. This small force had no military value except for the purpose of maintaining internal order, for it possessed no tanks, no aeroplanes, and no artillery of larger calibre than 4-in. guns.

the term of service was to be twelve full year in Labour Service, where, term has now been extended to work on his return to civilian years, so as to prevent the Germans since digging and entrenching form out of every hundred persons is two. Here Are All The Answers About Compulsory

CONSCRIPTION: COME INTO OPERATION

EVERYBODY IS anxious to know how they will be called up under Hongkong's conscription scheme—how they will be trained—what they will have to do-what will happen afterwardsand all the other details.

The plain story of this new enterprise, which is unique in Colonial peace-time history—as one high official described it to the "Telegraph": "Hongkong leads and the others may follow"—is given below in simple language.

Some answers are necessarily vague, because all the details have not yet been worked out for publication. Here are the questions and their answers:

LONDON, July 17.

ONE HUNDRED French warplanes are to make a flight to London and along the coast to Liverpool and Wales on Tuesday, in return for the visit of British warplanes to France last week, according to the "Daily Mail".

The paper says that the flight will probably be carried out at night, and the planes will not land in England. In the event of unfavourable weather, the flight will be

Recover Well To Win Game

Yesterday's nightcap was as interesting a game as we've witnessed at Caroline Hill. Trailing for five frames, U. S. S. Mindanao came from behind a large deficit to nose out Nam Hwa 9-8

South China counted first in the initial inning and Mindanao retaliated with one also. Then Nam Hwa jumped ahead in the third with another marker and railled with a grand merry-go-round in the fifth with a tally of five runs on four blows, four errors.

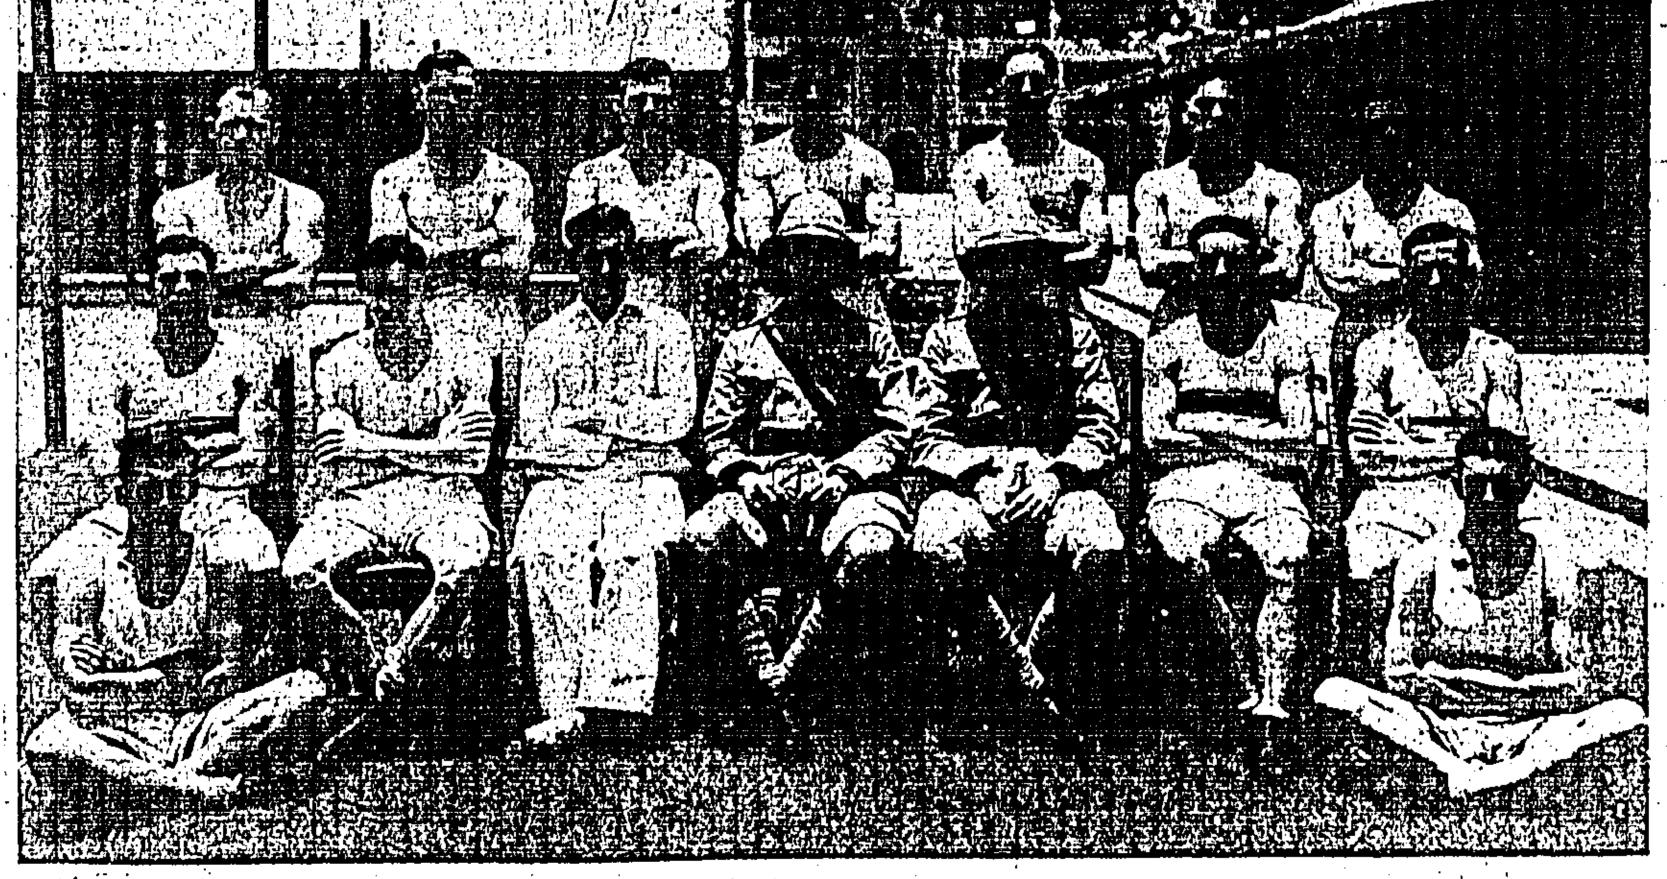

But although the gobs only scored once in that inning, a dashing rally in the next knotted the score to start the seventh with a 7—7 tie.
Undaunted, Nam Hwa scored one more run on catcher Paintpot Thomas wild throw to second, but Mindanno brought their stock up one ahead of them when Terrible Terry doubled to rightfield. There was some argument about ground rules in this play, and I doubt if, at this late stage of the game, all the umpires knew what it is all about. Probably even the Committee on Ground Rules don't agree on all the many rules that confront the poor unfortunates who play ball in dear old Hongkong. These ground rules, as far as I can remember, were made so that they would work both ways: that is, both sides would benefit, or would not benefit, by them. New umpires out there don't know these ground rules. and apparently the loudest voice wins the argument. I sincerely hope that they'll dispense with any sort of ground rules next senson. Then, we won't have any arguments at all, I

Do You Live By Competition?

MRS. X. lives where competition is the keynote of life. Left to herself she would move through this world quite contentedly. She might even develop a little personality and show an individual note in her clothes, house furnishing, and her hobbles. But either she cannot think for herself by nature or she has spent such a long time allowing her friends to think for her that she has lost the habit. She is just one of A LL good things go in threes, so a million other modern housewives, A they say, and here are three kept alive and "up-to-date" by the frocks to remind you of sea breezes constant competition with other wo-

Looking quite jolly, here is Count Maurice Lippens, Belgian Minister of State and former Governor of the Belgian Congo, as he arrived in New York. Afrangements were made to entertain him as guest of honour at Belgian Pavillon, New York Fair, on Belgium's Colonial Day.

How the King and Queen signed the guest book at New York Fair. Initials after King's name stand for Rex-Imperator (King-Emperor). Single initial after Queen's name stands for Regina (Queen).

When Sir John Anderson, British civilian defence minister, planned his airraid shelters for London folk, he evidently forgot about Mrs. Dobson of Park Avenue, Eltham. Even her friends can't get her in.
